Part 1: Notices

To Debtor(s):

This form sets out options that may be appropriate in some cases, but the presence of an option on the form does not indicate that the option is appropriate in your circumstances or that it is permissible in your judicial district. Plans that do not comply with the United States Bankruptcy Code, local rules and judicial rulings may not be confirmable.

In the following notice to creditors, you must check each box that applies.

Your rights may be affected by this plan. Your claim may be reduced, modified, or eliminated.

You should read this plan carefully and discuss it with your attorney if you have one in this bankruptcy case. If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one.

To Creditor(s):

If you oppose the plan's treatment of your claim or any provision of this plan, you or your attorney must file an objection to confirmation at least 7 days before the date set for the hearing on confirmation, unless the Bankruptcy Court orders otherwise. The Bankruptcy Court may confirm this plan without further notice if no objection to confirmation is filed. See Bankruptcy Rule 3015.

To receive payments under this plan, you must have an allowed claim. If you file a proof of claim, your claim is deemed allowed unless a party in interest objects. See 11 U.S.C. § 502(a).

The amounts listed for claims in this plan are estimates by the debtor(s). An allowed proof of claim will be controlling, unless the Bankruptcy Court orders otherwise.

The following matters may be of particular importance. Debtor(s) must check one box on each line to state whether or not the plan includes each of the following items.
